

Would you like to join a Chavurah?

What is a Chavurah?

Chavurah is the Hebrew word for fellowship. Each Chavurah is comprised of 6 to 8 families, couples or singles, who get together regularly to participate in a variety of activities, ranging from social - pot luck dinners and movies; to religious - Shabbat dinners and Seders; to charity - volunteering for Habitat for Humanity and collecting food; to education - guest speakers and Torah study.

Why join a Chavurah? Membership in a Chavurah can make a large congregation like Temple Chai less intimidating. Many Chavurot attend temple events as a group. It's like knowing you'll always be among friends.
